Magic Castle - Los Angeles*

Martin Lewis, an engaging Englishman with long tapered fingers ideal for the performance of his art, has spent his entire life involved with prestidigitation. Martin has performed his feats of illusion and magic throughout the world with a track record of successful performances. For the past twenty-five years Martin has continued to maintain a quality of excellence, which has enabled him to establish an impressive list of accomplishments as a magician, variety entertainer and lecturer.

Arriving in the United States 1968, Martin took up residence in the San Francisco Bay Area quickly establishing himself as resident magician at Earthquake Mgoons. Television work and world travel soon followed culminating in his being awarded “Visiting Magician of the year” and recently “Parlor Magician of the year” by the Academy of Magical Arts for his performances at the prestigious Magic Castle in Los Angeles.

In addition to his heavy performance schedule, Martin is constantly developing and marketing new magical tricks and lecturing worldwide. David Copperfield, in his 1991 and 1994 Television specials, featured effects from Martin’s book Martins Miracles.

Martin Lewis is an extremely gifted and talented magician, comedian and lecturer who will continue to entertain audiences throughout the world for a long time to come.
